

LEAF Members Events 2010 – come and join us!

What will a sustainable farming enterprise look like in 2020?

And is your business ready?

LINKING ENVIRONMENT AND FARMING
Integrated Farm Management

Thursday 7th October – Great Wollaston Farm, Halfway House, Shrewsbury, Shropshire SY5 9DN

Host – Robert Kynaston

Focus – Dairy

Speakers – Kate Burnby, independent veterinary consultant - Grass-based dairy farming for profit and health and Nick Major, BOCM Pauls - Adapting business for change and opportunity ahead

Thursday 14th October - The Old Pack House, Sycamore Farm, Moulton Common, Spalding, Lincolnshire PE12 6LF

Host – Matthew Naylor

Focus – Horticulture and water management

Speakers – Simon Barnes IGD - water – addressing future supply chain challenges of this valuable resource, local and global and LEAF members share their solutions.

Wednesday 20th October – Midloe Grange Farm, Rectory Lane, Southoe, Cambridgeshire PE19 5YD

Host – David Felce

Focus – Arable

Speaker – Professor Maurice Moloney, Director at Rothamsted Research – how we can produce more food by 2020 with minimal impact on our environment.

Thursday 4th November – Aishe Barton, Old Butterleigh Road, Silvertown, Exeter, Devon, EX5 4HF

Host – Andrew Baker

Focus – Livestock

Speaker – Charlie Morgan, Agricultural and Environmental Grassland Specialist

Kindly supported by Eblex

Thursday 11th November – Weighton Wold Farm, Market Weighton, York YO43 4NE

Host – Robert Rook

Focus – Arable and Livestock

Speakers - Professor Maurice Moloney, Director at Rothamsted Research – how we can produce more by 2020 with minimal impact on our environment and Charlie Morgan, Agricultural and Environmental Grassland Specialist

Kindly supported by Eblex

All events start at 10.30am and finish with lunch by 1.30pm

To book your place, please call the LEAF office on 02476 413911 or email

enquiries@leafuk.org

We look forward to seeing you!